

Ontario Agency for Health Protection and Promotion Laboratories

Information for Healthcare Providers on Respiratory Viral Testing

Document Creation Date – Nov 24 2009

For Institutional Outbreaks See: Information for Healthcare Providers on Respiratory Outbreak Viral Testing

1 Request from Hospital Laboratory:

- Inpatient – Process as “Hospitalized”
- Patient seen in ER but not admitted and no risk factors – Reject

2 High Risk

- Children <5 years old; adults >65 years old
- Pregnancy
- Residents of long-term care facilities (LTCF)
- Morbid obesity
- <18 years of age on Salicylates / Aspirin

People with chronic health conditions, including:

- Cardiac or Pulmonary disorders, (e.g. asthma)
- Diabetes mellitus and other metabolic diseases
- Immunodeficiency / Cancer; Immunosuppression
- Renal disease
- Neurological or neuromuscular conditions
- Anemia or hemoglobinopathy

Also accept

- Persons living in remote communities
- Healthcare workers who become ill at work
- Patients with farm contact

Note:

¹ Hospitalized patient, with or without risk factors: Perform Influenza PCR regardless of whether it is requested.

² Ambulatory patient with risk factor: Only perform PCR if Flu or H1N1 is specifically requested.